Job Description

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Administers and oversees the Transition Planning and Re-entry Resource Center program and manages contracted service providers.
- Monitors and evaluates program elements and provider performance to ensure services meet the needs of the re-entry population.
- Oversees transition planning at MDC, ensuring timely assessments, complete transition plans, and coordination with jail-based services and community partners.
- Maintains a clean, welcoming Re-entry Resource Center that supports returning citizens.
- Identifies service gaps and design solutions by researching best practices, seeking funding, and engaging stakeholders.

- Evaluates and improves case management and transition planning processes, policies, and procedures.
- Builds and maintains partnerships with stakeholders to reduce recidivism and improve access to medical, mental health, substance abuse treatment, and other critical services.
- Monitors service quality, fidelity, and compliance; evaluates outcomes and recommends improvements.
- Conducts research, analyzes challenges, proposes policies, and plans program enhancements.
- Supervises County staff; guides contracted providers in staffing and oversight.
- Collaborates with MDC, criminal justice agencies, providers, and other entities to improve program operations and contributes to broader system improvements.
- Defines services for RFIs, RFPs, and contracts; manage contract compliance in line with procurement policies.
- Explores and plans for the adoption of best practices, funding opportunities, and program expansions.
